The Honorable Joseph P. Addabbo
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Mr. Addabbo:

STATOTHR In Mr. Carlucci's absence and on Admiral Turner's behalf, I am responding to your letter of 11 October 1978 concerning [REDACTED] STATOTHR [REDACTED], who is interested in employment with this Agency.

STATINTL We regret not being able to offer [REDACTED] employment, and we are STATOTHR also sorry for any misunderstanding that may have arisen during his conversation with [REDACTED], one of our Washington-based recruiters. STATOTHR

First, I would like to point out that our inability to offer [REDACTED] employment was based only on the fact that he was not as qualified as some of the other applicants who apply for employment with us. As you may appreciate, we place an advertisement in a newspaper or magazine specifying general qualifications. Then, we select, after careful review, those individuals whose overall academic qualifications and other attributes make them prime candidates for employment. We will no doubt continue to advertise in a somewhat similar vein with the goal of obtaining the most qualified candidates for employment with the Agency. Simply stated, the competition is extremely keen, and we did not believe that [REDACTED] possessed as in-depth academic background and foreign language capability as did some of the other selected applicants. STATINTL

STATOTHR As regards [REDACTED] discussion with [REDACTED] does not believe he mentioned that the advertisement was a mistake, but may have said that we could, perhaps, be even more specific if the advertisement is placed in the future.

We appreciate this opportunity to clarify an apparent misunderstanding, and we wish to assure you that our inability to offer [REDACTED] employment STATOTHR was no reflection on him or his background.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
John F. Blake
Deputy Director for Administration

Admiral Stansfield Turner
Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Admiral Turner:

STATOTHR I am again writing you in behalf of my constituent, [REDACTED] regarding his desire to be employed by your Agency.

Enclosed is a copy of his latest communication which speaks for itself. As you will note he is most concerned about being told that there would be no vacancies for several years and then an advertisement appears in the local newspaper stating that positions are available.

I would appreciate your looking into this matter and advising me accordingly.

Kindest regards.

Sincerely,

JOSEPH P. ADDABBO, M.C.

Dear Congressman Addabbo,

I found the attached advertisement from the October 7, edition of the Amsterdam News quite perplexing, since I was at the Arlington office of the C.I.A. Monday, October 1.

STATINTL

STATINTL On Monday October 1 at 9:30, I met [REDACTED], Director of Personnel at the Arlington, Virginia office of the C.I.A. I told [REDACTED] of the [REDACTED] of the C.I.A. had said that if I were ever in the area I should stop by the office to find out why my April application had been denied. [REDACTED] told me that the advertisement had been a mistake. The people that they were looking for usually had a Doctorate and a few years overseas experience. Also, the people they were looking for had a mastery of the hard languages-Russian, Chinese, etc. [REDACTED] also told me that the advertisement was a mistake and that the next time they were looking for people that they would state the advanced qualifications they wanted.

STATINTL

STATINTL

You can imagine my surprise when I saw this advertisement in the Amsterdam on October 5. I would like to know what the problem is? I was just in the C.I.A. office on Monday and I am told that there would be no employment by the C.I.A. again for another few years by [REDACTED] and on Thursday I see this advertisement.

STATINTL

I hope that you can assist because I would dearly like to be in the C.I.A. I am available for an interview at your convenience.

Yours truly,

STATOTHR
